That it is cheaper in the long run to Build than it is to

"Be Good—Obey the Law"

If anyone has any doubt of Judge Ruppenthal having the back-bone or playing politics for democratic votes in his official duties they want to read the Court proceedings. He addressed the audience and prisoners from the bench this term. He believes in the Parole law and that in a first offense, in accidental cases, it may do good to give the offender a chance to "be good," make a good citizen, but he gave it out distinctly that persistent offenders, that vicious offenders must expect no favors but take the punishment the law requires. He did not make the law. It is on the book so every old offender knows the penalty and if they want to be violators they must take the consequences. It is a plain warning to the violators in the 23rd Judicial district.

He will recommend to the County Commissioners in the district the establishing of a rock pile in their court house grounds where the prisoners can be made to break stone to be used in reclaiming the roadway around the Court House grounds and other needed places on the public roads.

SUCCESS.

"What is the secret of success?"
asked the Sphinx.
"Push," said the button.
"Never be led," said the pencil.
"Take pains," said the window.
"Always keep cool," said the ice.
"Be up-to-date," said the calendar.
"Never lose your head," said the barrel.
"Make light of everything," said the fire.
"Do a driving business," said the hammer.
"Aspire to greater things," said the nutmeg.

Self preservation is the first law of nature. You are violating nature's laws if you are not thoroughly insured against fire, death, accident and sickness. Now is the accepted time and Fred Miller, square deal agency, the proper place to secure all of them.

Whiskey and Gambling Cases

Our citizens propose to make Hays a good town to live in; a safe and desirable town for people to send their children to school; a place people will like to buy property and locate in, and Judge Ruppenthal proposes to help in the good work.

At this term of court the witnesses were tired of false swearing and told what they really knew, resulting in the several convictions and sentences below told of and a warning to others "to be good." And Co. Atty. Shuts has again shown that where the evidence can be produced he will prosecute and enforce the law.

Peter Staab, Sr., convicted upon 13 counts, received a sentence by the court of 90 days on each of the 12 sales counts and six months on the nuisance count making an aggregate of 42 months in the county jail. On the 13 counts he was fined $200 on each count making a total fine of $2600. James Gallagher, convicted upon twelve counts, received a like sentence, 39 months, $2400. Jake Staat, who also was convicted upon 13 counts received a jail sentence of 42 mo. and $250 upon each count or $3250.
It was also ordered that each defendant enter into a bond in the sum of $1000 to keep the peace and be of good behavior for the period of two years beginning at the expiration of their jail sentences and that they stand committed to jail until the sentence of the court is complied with. Also that they pay the costs of the prosecution which will add another $1000 which they will have to pay before they can even be paroled.

Complaint was made to the Judge on Wednesday that Alois Staab had violated the terms of his parole by getting under the influence of intoxicating liquors. The Judge immediately cited Staab and witnesses to appear before him and the matter was investigated by the Judge and County Attorney.
On account of another case that was on trial, and the inability of a witness to be present (he being sick) the hearing was continued, the Judge intending to return specially to hear this matter.
If found true, as Staab has been paroled, he must, by law, this time stay in jail the eight months remaining of his former sentence.

In the gambling (contempt) cases from Ellis the two defendants DeDon aid and Rush were found guilty of contempt of court in violating an injunctional order. Sentence in one of the cases was passed and the other standing on motion for a new trial. Defendant Rush was sentenced to pay a fine of $250 and six months in the county jail and the costs of the action.

Fred Miller has two splendid business propositions for sale. Both are good paying investments. See Fred at once and secure these bargains.

The Hays Military Band has re-organized with Dr. Marty as leader.
About forty have joined and will enjoy his instruction.

Henry Tyler proposes to keep in the procession of improvement in our city and has had a new roof added to his home place on Oak Street.

More Paper Railroads.

The "Get Rich Easy" fellows are still hunting suckers and filing railroad charters without any backing, so the promoters and surveyors can get a job. We have them all over Western Kansas the latest being a narrow gauge from Rush Center, with a population of 250, for LaCrosse and Liebenthal are "easy" victims. And last week's paper announces that the U. P. railroad will sell for freight charges the 9,818 railroad ties and 9,140 fence posts of that projected railroad of Plainville to Webster, that were hauled to Plainville.
